Commission President Marlow Harmon called the meeting to order at 12:00 (noon).

Mr. Harmon, this is a "Special Meeting to Approving the Polling Places for the May 2nd Primary Election.

Mr. Behler, I have marked Michigan City third ward first prescient as new, Neighborhood Center #2, it actually is not new they voted there in 2004.

Mr. Harmon, I believe that covers everything.

Mr. Behler, I have to tell you and I do not believe that any county in the state will be 100% handicap accessible, according to the federal standards. We will meet the state standards of being able to get everybody into the buildings and get them voted on the handicap accessible. I will be handing those reports to the election division, we have to report as we go along.

Mrs. Huston made a motion to approve the Polling Places, second by Mr. Hager. Motion carried with a voice vote 3-0.

Commissioner Harmon adjourned the meeting at 12:25 p.m...
