WHEREAS, the Executive Order of the Governor of Indiana, dated March 6, 2020, issued Executive Order 20-08, which among other things:

(a) suspended a single event, gathering, or arrangement that meets the following criteria:

- 50 or more people;
- occurs indoors; and
- occurs in a venue where people are in close contact.

WHEREAS, the Governor's order cited "a public health emergency of the highest degree" and "a necessary measure to control the spread of COVID-19."

WHEREAS, the Indiana Department of Health, in its jurisdictional capacity, determined that the "emergency order" under the "Health Code of Indiana," Article 12, Section 3, authorized the Governor to make the order.

WHEREAS, the Governor's order stated that "the emergency order" was "issued on emergency authority."
