

LaPorte
County
WORKS!

VANAIR[®]
MOBILE POWER SOLUTIONS[™]

Vanair Manufacturing, Inc

- Known originally as “Sullair PTO”, Vanair was founded as a division of Sullair Corporation in 1972. They became Vanair Manufacturing in 1984 and located to New Buffalo, Michigan. The company grew and in 1997, Ralph Kokot purchased Vanair. In 2008, Vanair moved into its new building in LaPorte County, Indiana.
- Vanair continued to grow and expand its facility to its current production and office space of over 160,000 square feet.
- Vanair Manufacturing is now located at 10896 West 300 North, Michigan City, Indiana.
- Vanair has over 50 years of experience providing the best-in-class products, installation and service training.
- Vanair offers a comprehensive line of mobile power solutions in the industry. Their products include a wide variety of air compressors, generators, welders, battery chargers, battery boosters, and engine starters.
- Vanair is an engineering – driven company, known for its problem-solving capabilities to meet the customer demands.
- They currently employ 170 people with open positions including:
 - Service Technician
 - Parts Packer
 - Regional Sales Manager
 - Assembler
 - Drafter
 - Electrical Engineer
- Vanair offers a competitive salary and an average wage of $25.00 per hour, including a benefit package that includes medical, dental, and vision insurance, matching 401K, and paid vacation, holidays, and wellness time.
- Interested and qualified candidates should send their resume to hr@vanair.com. A complete list and qualifications for positions at Vanair can be found at <https://www.vanair.Com>. Scroll down to “careers” to fill out an application.

LaPorte
County
WORKS!