LaPorte County Works!

LaPorte County Commission Continues to Highlight Local Businesses During Commission Meeting

(La Porte County, IN): On Wednesday, October 20, 2021, LaPorte County Commissioner Sheila Matias showcased another local company in a new business series called LaPorte County Works! which focuses on high-impact local manufacturers who are flourishing and growing in our county.

“The pandemic made the last few years tough on everyone and so it’s more important than ever to focus on what’s good about our county-good jobs, good wages, and good futures right here.

“LaPorte County WORKS! is a way of honoring the many businesses who call LaPorte County home. We highlight local businesses and industries so citizens of all ages and skill sets know they can find a job, grow their careers and earn a good living right here in LaPorte County. These companies are supporting family-wage jobs right here in our communities. I hope that by highlighting local companies’ products, services, and opportunities, people will learn more about these jobs and good career opportunities very close to home; these companies are part of what makes our county a great place to work, live and raise our families. We want to make sure that LaPorte County residents who are looking for a new career, a better job or a better opportunity can look no further than the many great employers right here in beautiful LaPorte County, Indiana.” stated Commissioner Matias.

Commissioner Sheila Matias has been using her time under Commissioner Comments at commission meetings for this business report so that our citizens know they can not only “Shop Local” but also “Work Local!” At the October 20, 2021 Commission meeting, Commissioner Matias presented Sims Meat Processing Inc., a growing family-owned company founded in 2008 that specializes in custom meat processing; they are currently hiring.

“We simply could not be prouder of the caliber and quality of these entrepreneurial manufacturers who are investing here, employing LaPorte County people while they compete on the global economic stage from right here in LaPorte County,” stated Tony Rodriguez, Director of the Office of Community and Economic Development.

Summary of Recent Laporte County Works! highlights:
